Shadle Park High School, 1962: This is your school year in review. As you turn back to memories of work and fun at Shadle, can you deny that outstanding among these experiences will be the cherished moments when you, as a student, upheld your school's pride and honor. Could you ever forget . . .

how you battled your way through the crowded halls, how you bombed up the stairs late to class,
how you cooled that final Chemistry test,
how you cheered our team on until you gasped for breath, how you supported our fellas, win, lose, or draw.

You will never forget . . .

Our treasured moments and memories of Shadle will not die, but will live on forever. For as we step out into the wide world for ourselves, we will not forget the school where we will leave a part of our hearts. Yes, we will always belong at Shadle.

And to those who are to follow — we offer you both a challenge and a responsibility, and promise you loads of wonderful memories if you will respect and love Shadle as we do.

"Each that we lose, we do lose ourselves."

No one ever faced death with more courage than did Mrs. Mabel Swanson, Shadle Park's Senior Secretary.

Mrs. Swanson first became a part of our principal's staff when she was in high school. Few have come to regard their vocations with more dedication than she, and fewer still have kept so constant and so sweet a temper. Her concern for the high school students whose affairs she handled, and her respect for the integrity demanded of her position, we will not soon forget.
To you, Highlanders, who make up
. . . a noisy classroom
. . . a crowded, stampeding hall
. . . an appreciative audience
. . . an enthusiastic rooting section.

To you, who have given Shadle a life and a heart, making it a place in which many things have and will be accomplished—We dedicate the 1962 Sporrån, hoping that it will recall to your minds and hearts the memories which we lads and lassies will always share.

We appreciate the time Mr. Finnegan dedicates to our problems and activities as Dean of Boys and senior advisor.

Miss Cleveland, Girls' Dean and advisor to the juniors, has plenty to keep her busy, and is always willing to help when needed.

Not only sophomores profit from the expert advice of Mr. Cobb, sophomore advisor, but also upperclassmen and teachers.

Shadle can boast the best and most capable Principal of all, Mr. Taylor.

Assistant Principal Mr. Anker has contributed much to our scholastic success.

Our efficiently-run high school is proof of this fact.

There is more than one way to meet Mr. Bennett, our Vice Principal and loyal supporter.
Our Highland home has many administrative needs which are very efficiently carried out by the office staff, librarian, and bookroom clerk.

Mrs. Brooks  Mrs. Durand  Mrs. Glidden  Mrs. Lynde  Mrs. Matthews
Mrs. Noonan  Mrs. Paddock  Mrs. Painter  Mrs. Zeller
Mr. Boe  Mr. Breckenridge  Mr. Bungay  Mr. Chatin  Mr. Kingsland  Mr. Kuehl  Mr. Manning
Mr. MeNew  Mr. Schmidt
Mr. Jones  Mrs. Jones  Mr. Peterson  Mr. Pugh

Mrs. Magnuson  Mr. Rostvold  Mr. Stockman  Mrs. Snider  Mr. Varty

Our social studies department helps us carry our years of experience as Highland citizens into the world.

"Healthful, Happy, Highlanders" is the goal of our physical education department.

"Noted" for the "time" and talent it contributes to our entertainment and enjoyment.

Tomorrow's business world depends on Shadle's chicken scratchers of today in the commercial department.

Supplying Shadle with expert artistic ability is one service of the art department.
The English department gives us basic understanding of English before we use Shadle's native Gaelic tongue.

Creating successful home builders of tomorrow is the manual arts department's task.

Whether in Algebra I or Math Analysis, two plus two still equals our hard working math department.

Scientific achievements play a leading role in our life today, and Shadle's laboratories are no exception.

“Parlez-vous francais” or “Comprende Ud Espanol” are a few of the foreign sounds emerging from our language department.
cooks and custodians

WE PRESENT SHADLE'S MORALE BUILDERS—THE COOKS

Beverly Alfano, Eileen Sarber, Either Davis, Ellen Estes, Clara Ninemire, Thelma Hedin, Donna Dotson, Willena Martin, Ellen Mohney, Beatrice Masters.

The custodians make up the all important behind-the-scene-team of Shadle.

Leonard Gamache, Ralph Sterritt, Sam Adley, Syl Hutchins, Alvin Nelson, Frank Adams, Betty Schirk, R. E. Jackson.
Teachers, like all of us, need something to keep them going. We feel that lunch is the period they look forward to, also, especially on a spirited game day.

First thing in the morning, each teacher reports to his mailbox to find what's on his day's agenda.

Here's a change. At open house the faculty puts in overtime explaining to our parents just exactly what is expected from students.
We Seniors have become a part of this school, just as Shadle has become a part of us. Never again will we see: teachers wearing Henderson Green, winding stairways crowded with students, lines for lunch the length of the cafeteria, or the apple machines always out of order. All this was a part of Shadle — something to remember.

Last of the originals—yes, we of the class of ’62 were among the first to enter the halls of Shadle. We look back on the five years of work and fun, reminiscing . . .

to the class of '62

Congratulations on your successful completion of five years of hard work. You may well feel proud of the accomplishments of your class. You are to be commended for your high rank in citizenship. Many of your members have already demonstrated outstanding leadership; others have rated high scholastically. Next fall many of you no doubt will enter institutions of higher learning, while others engage in commercial or industrial activity. Whatever your endeavor, I am certain that you will be a credit to Shadle Park High School. May God always bless your life with peace, and may your future be one of happiness.
Studyhall—a scene familiar to everyone. Here are our scholarly juniors hard at work. By the way, this is a posed shot.
Now how does this study hall scene of sophomores compare with the juniors? It gives the sophs something to look forward to next year.
Hidden behind the scenes of all Shadle activities is our stage crew, Joe Agostino, Richard White, Dave Walters, Roger Repp, John Beam, and Richard Walters.

stage crew aids sophomores, juniors and seniors

Enjoying a bird's eye view while working the spotlights are John Beam and Dave Walters.

Ron Carter, stage manager, is at the controls.

The spotlight is on Richard White and Roger Repp.
ACTIVITIES
One of the Hi-Lites of Highlander Week was the Teacher's Tea. Students served the teachers coffee and cookies, furnished by the home-rooms. Serving Mr. Ross and Mrs. Magnuson are Marti Mueller, Nancy Heimsjo, Vickie Ashley, Donna Rhodes, and Cheri Cote.

Highlander week

Climaxing Highlander Week activities was the annual Highland Fling, a mixer for all lads and lassies.
Ivor McCoy is so loaded with purses and books on Hi-Lassie Day, that he is helpless when Patty Burns and Marsha Williams try to strangle him with a pair of stretch tights.

Barb Aitchison stacks up "brownie" points with Mr. Harris as she presents him with an apple on behalf of the A. S. B. Each teacher was given a shiny red apple on Hi-Teacher Day.

Hi-Lassie day was just too much for Joe Gardner, whom we find dejectedly seated on the floor with no hope of help.

Dave Morton was one of many boys who took advantage of Hi-Laddie Day. It took these four girls, Bonnie Brecken, Jerry Cottrell, Patty Cox, and Colleen Cady to carry him through the halls.
Climbing great heights to decorate the gym for the Highland Fling Mixer, the final activity of Highlander Week, are Peggy Rolfsness, Lynda McCoy, Raeann Davis, Carol Mohr and Carol Safford.

Hi-Laddie Day Found Joan De-Long, Marge Purves, and Mattie Gruber getting first hand experience in male grooming as it was expertly given by Jim Simons.

A ten foot string of wieners was the prize Ron McCartney received for being one of the winners of the pie eating contest.

Dave Walters found himself deeply involved in the shoe-shining business on Hi-Lassie Day.
The fourth annual Girls' League Sadie Hawkins Dance was held on November 3, 1961. Couples who wished to become "hitched" (Patty Greenslitt and Steve Taylor) went to see Marryin' Sam, one of whom was Mr. Paul Henley. Prizes were presented to the citizens of Dogpatch with the most authentic costumes. The winning couple was Linda Parker and Gary Hurley who came as schmoos. Among the many stunning costumes at the dance were Rich Wharf, Carla Greene, Joan Greenwood, Bob Stephan, Bonnie Seipp, and Terry Anderson.
The Sweetheart Swing was an informal date dance held in the cafeteria after a basketball game with West Valley.

Larry Groshoff presents the Clansmen candidate, Kathe Palmer, with a bouquet, making her Sweetheart of the "Sweetheart Swing".

Bruce Lee, Nancy Perry, Nancy Graham, Ethan Crawford, Myrl Chapman, Darleen Campbell, Steve Katon and Lynn Drake were just a few of the couples who enjoyed the dance.
Shadle's gorgeous cheerleaders, Bob Stephan and Dan Vanderpool, with the help of Clanswomen, try out a new cheer.

The "Cotton Queen and King," Guyla Hooper and Dave Morton, are attired in new spring clothes.

Mommie (Judy) Mead is telling little Beauford Clark a bedtime story about the Shadle Park Sporran for 1962.
Paula is crowned Queen of the annual Shrine football game by visiting Shriners at the Shadle pep con.

The large crowd found at every pep con is on hand again to stand and yell as the cheerleaders help promote spirit and support for the team.

The grandchildren, Mike Gormley and Dianna Black, who are gathered around the Christmas tree, are listening to one of Grandpa's (Mike Hoover) famous yarns during the Christmas convocation.

Wait until he comes around the corner, then we'll get him.

"... and lining up at the starting gate is..."

"Drop those and I'll smash ya."

These studious people are Shadle's National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists. They earned this honor by receiving high grades on the National Merit test. They now have chances of winning top scholarships.

Marion Bowker receives a Daughters of the Revolution pin for her outstanding essay entitled "A Republic, If You Can Keep It."

Mr. Chrisman awards Doug Jones a scholarship for study in the field of research science. The award was given Doug as the most outstanding senior in the area of science.

The outstanding art work for the 1962 Sporran was contributed by Sharon Lean and Bruce Lee, seated, Dan Henderson, John Meier, Monte Hallgarth, Mike Dalgarn, and Jim Atwood.
As the new A.S.B. officers: Keith Hubbard, President; Larry Groshoff, Vice President; Margaret Mueller, Secretary; Chuck Randall, Treasurer; and Mike Gee, Fifth Executive, file in, students wait for the official installation.

Giving her report on Girls' State is Ruth Green. Seated are Jo Whitely, who attended Twinlow Camp for student leaders this summer, and Nancy Spangenberg, who also was a Girls' State representative.

Judy Burchett, Jackie Burchett, Marti Mueller, Judy Kennedy, and Miss Albo are preparing decorations for the annual Dad and Daughter Dessert. In keeping with the “Century 21” theme Karen Trent, left, and Carla Green, right, lead a cheer for the futuristic football game.
Leaving for Girls’ State are Nancy Spangenberg and Ruthe Green. While attending the session, Ruthe was State Attorney General and Nancy served in the Senate.

Girls’ and Boys’ State is a most rewarding experience. Two girls and two boys from Shadle were chosen to attend mock legislature sessions held in Ellensburg and Tacoma respectively. City, county and state governments were stressed, with elections and typical legislative procedures practiced. Many wonderful friendships began there.

Packing up and heading to Boys’ State are Dan Vanderpool and Don Russell. While at State, Dan was a representative and Don served as Game Commissioner.

Majorettes Jeanne Hirst and Becky Gaines were a new addition to the marching band this year.

The Highland Fling dancers added Scottish spice to the halftime ceremonies at football games. The dancers are Jean Braman, Carolyn Siegrist, Roger Ross, bagpiper; Marilyn Siegrist, and Paul- ette Blair.

At a music awards banquet Mr. Kornmeyer presented Mary Kay Jacobsen with a pin for her participation in musical presentations. Students are awarded with a bronze pin for two semesters without missing a performance, and a gold pin for four semesters of service.

The Shadle Park band, led by Bill Lindley, spent long hours at the stadium practicing for their performance at the Merry-Go-Round game.
PURPOSE: To promote the general welfare of the school and students that will graduate in 1963.

ACTIVITIES: Cupcake sale, committee work on their Senior Prom, sponsor the annual Junior Prom.

GOALS: To organize the class of '63 members into a united group, to support school activities, and to provide activities and opportunities for all to participate in.

The first semester officers were: Dan Phillips, President; Peggy Rolfsness, Secretary; Bill Helbig, Fifth Exec.; Juliene Stokke, Treasurer; and Bill Haraldson, First Vice President. Not pictured is Linda McCoy, Second Vice President.

The Junior Class is paying for their prom by collecting dues. Loyal members of the class have found that the best method of collecting them is the "strong arm method." Here we see a reluctant member being forced to put her donation in the piggy bank.

Helping the Class of '63 organize for their senior activities is advisor, Mr. Ross Byrd. The class will count on his sense of humor to keep everybody happy during the crisis of senior functions. Because he is looked upon as "boss" in his business education classes, he should have no trouble organizing the various committees.

Officers directing spring activities were Melva McFarlane, Treasurer; Rick Aramburu, First Vice-President; Nancy Green, Secretary; Meyer Ziman, President; and Donna Conrath, Fifth Exec. Not shown is Ed Fiskland, Second Vice-President.

It snowed. Dejected juniors had to postpone plans for a car wash to raise money for their coming prom.
PURPOSE: To encourage dramatic activities and aid the student in developing poise and self control.

ACTIVITIES: Sponsor night of one-act plays in the spring, represent Shadle at Thespian functions held at other schools.

GOAL: To advance the drama department and make it important and well-known at Shadle.

First semester officers of Thespians were Jan Harris, president; Gay Weeks, secretary-treasurer; Carol Larson, historian, and Jo Prigmore, vice-president.

Members of Thespians practice "Hansel and Gretel," put on for the Children's Theater in March at the Post.

PURPOSE: To promote friendship around the world and to aid those who are in need.

GOALS: To establish a Red Cross Council at Shadle and to promote Red Cross work throughout the Inland Empire.

ACTIVITIES: Seasonal decorations for Veteran's Hospital, entertaining the men at Fairchild and Geiger, exchanging school yells, customs, etc., with schools abroad.

Mr. Finnegan, advisor, has done a great deal to get the organization on its feet. Here he studies the Red Cross Journal.

Representatives from Shadle, Faye Griswold and Mary Lee Gillette, attend a meeting of the High School Red Cross Central Council.
PURPOSE: To develop literary, musical, dramatical, artistical, and other cultural tendencies.

ACTIVITIES: Dad-Daughter Potluck, Christmas Party for alumni, speakers on cultural interests, a needy family at Christmas and Easter.

SUMMARY

The varsity football team showed great determination and spirit through the year, even though the season was not too impressive.

Coach Peterson said, "This is the best squad that I have ever coached. I've had boys with better ability, but never with as much desire and love for the game. I'm really proud of the way they kept their hopes high, even though it wasn't too noticeable on the win-loss column."

In our 0 to 0 tie with North Central, Bob Stephan runs around right end for yardage gained.

For every hard-fought victory, the Highlanders suffered a heart-breaking defeat. All hopes of making state three years in a row waned as the season drew to a close. Their spirit and determination was still the strongest in the city, but efforts were not successful in accomplishing the long-sought goal . . . The State Tournament.

The hard-working managers for the Highlanders squad are Jack Fountaine, Dan Wolfley, and Larry Wogman.

Steve Heaps tips in another two points during a close non-league loss to the Moses Lake Chiefs, 50 to 52.

WE CAN’T STAND STILL!
The Washington Water Power Company had been identified with dependable utility service for most of the past three-quarters of a century.

It is the reputation of a community builder, however, that we value most. Each year we have found new trails to cut, new horizons to cross, new ways to serve.

WWP's pledge to today's graduates, as well as to its other fellow citizens, is to continue, un-diminished, this tradition of helping build your community.

spring

The snows of high school have melted, and the spring of life is upon you, Seniors! You pass through portals of responsibility in these brief weeks. The bigness of unconcern vanishes, and the yielding of your seeds of maturity is taking place now, Juniors! Your future can be molded in this time rapidly advancing. The summer of newness has faded, and the fall of routine has set in, Sophomores! Beware the frozen plains of complacency. View the approaching spring of life.
Spring brings girls' league activities

Girl's League Courtesy Committee members, Shadle's official hostesses, greet newcomers to Shadle as they arrive: FIRST ROW: LoRita Solceng, Marion Bowker, Julie Stokke, Sally Stokke, Marsha Williams, Karen Trent, Emily Paddock, Ginny Young, Sandy Johnson, Linda Juul, Diane Jones, Gail Williams, Carolyn Glidde,n. SECOND ROW: Barbie Irby, Joan Greenwood, Judy Backman, Mary Lee Gillette, Faye Griswold, Jennifer Wengeler, Nancy Spangenburg, Carol Bohma, Miss Helen Cleveland, advisor, Nancy Graham, Nancy Perry, Sylvia Meuler, Jo Whitely. Sandy Kerr, Kaye Nelson, Gayle LaVigne, and Marti Mueller, chairman.

Girls' League Cotton Day royalty included sophomore candidates, Chrystol Thompson and Jeff Watts; senior Queen and King, Jo Whitely and Charlie Cobb; junior candidates, Dan Phillips and Julie Tye.
Carnival hombres are being guarded by these “responsible” Dileas Chalin cow-girls who will deposit the fines in their treasury.

a. s. b.

No prize that time.

General chairman of the carnival, Lynn Drake, has quite a bit of loot.
That one!

Hey gang, let's try Reno.

Mr. Robinette seems to think the situation in jail is hopeless while Ron Alderson holds his wound, inflicted by the Dileas law-women.
Another part of the program was a style show in which Margaret Butts, Erin Armstrong, and Gay Weeks, (seated) Janice Hess, Kathy Bennet, Donna Wilmington, Joan Campbell, Sherry Chesrown, Judy Campbell, Patricia Johnson, Jan Jacobs, and Candy Miller modeled the dresses that they made themselves.

mother-daughter reception

Ivor McCoy and Karen Trent danced in the program of the annual Mother-Daughter Tea.

Kathy Nichte-line, Mrs. Boisen, and Shirley Wage-man are shown serving Peggy Rolfness and her mother.

Here are the Hi-Lassies ready to begin their long march displaying their new banner for the first time. It is a gift from the Senior Hi-Lassies.

The same Lassies after the drag. Do your feet hurt, girls?

Our princess, Carolyn, looks as if she is enjoying her ride as is Mary Jean Raney from Holy Names.

On the eve of the Junior Prom Diane is entering a florist shop.

Well, look who beat her to it. "Fancy meeting you here."

Setting the scene for "Shangrila" is the bridge from reality into dreams.

It must not be too late in the evening, for most of the girls still have their shoes on.
"Aha!" The witch caught Rapunzel and her millionaire makin' whoopee in the last annual presentation of Salmagundy.

The seniors heartily encouraged everyone to "Pucker Up."

last annual salmagundy

Pan and Tinkerbell express their undying devotion for one another at the conclusion of Peter Pan.

Four Freshmen? No, four seniors who highlighted the Senior Con with "Michael" and "Ranna."
Senior Sports Day gave the "last of the originals" a chance to show off their knees in grubbies. General "goofoffishness" reigned.

Senior Dress Up Day followed with the upper-classmen finally appearing as people about to step out into the world.
As seniors danced in the heavenly atmosphere, the dreams of many came true on the night of the Senior Prom. The realities of the Prom will in time fade into one of the most cherished memories of high school life.

The Prom atmosphere may have been "heavenly", but sharp contrast was provided by three "junior devils" who became popular by serving refreshments.
The honored table at the Senior Breakfast included Mr. Finnegan, Miss Cleveland, Mr. Eaeker, Rev. Homer A. Swartz, and Mike Stevens, class president.

These seniors and Mr. Via are obviously enjoying Mr. Heslins' speech, which was humorous as well as inspirational.

The empty plates and full stomachs characterized the ending of five years at Shadle and the start of a whole new and exciting life for each member of the Class of 1962.
Darleen Campbell was one of the first seniors to receive her diploma from George Nethercut, chairman of the Spokane School Board.

Waiting two and one half hours to receive his diploma, was Glenn Zumwalt, the last Senior to graduate.

Mike Stevens is shown welcoming the friends and relatives of the Class of 1962 to the third Commencement of Shadle Park High School.

Gary Luce practices his sliding form while Phil Fehler attempts the tag.

Ron McCartney streaks across first as Sid Johnson attempts to make the put-out.

Behind the scenes, assistants are Managers Dick Beetle and Carl Anderson.

Ed Fiskland shows the form that made him one of the top hitters. The catcher is Terry Kolb.

In a practice session on the Shadle field, Terry Marienau is caught in the "hot box" by Rich Wichterman and Sid Johnson. Chuck Halstead backs up the play.

Warming up before the start of a league game, is Gary Luce.

Coach Don Cobb felt the success of the team was due to the players' combined efforts.

Len Holmes leads the way in the 220 yard high hurdles.

Mike Stevens, always a strong competitor, throws the shot during a dual meet this season.

track action

Dick Sherrill flies high as he pushes for a winning jump.

On his way to another pole vault win, Rick Liefer slips over the bar.
Representing Shadle on the tennis courts during the spring season were: FRONT: Randy Johnson, Mike Petitt, Jerry Chick, Fred Schurhart, Doug Kuelman, Jim Lewis, Dave Mascher, Roy Magnuson, and Perry Magstadt. BACK: Joe Manzi, Gregg Hamilton, Jerry Pearce, Jeff Stone, Ed Bennett, Jeff Clausen, Brent Lyon, Ron Lane, John Rue, and Coach Frank Yusc. NOT PICTURED WERE: Darold Trent, Joe Hoogstad, Ron Adams, Bruce Farnsworth, Don Hemmig, and Dave Hemmig.

Starting out the season with an excellent record of 4 wins and 1 loss, the boy's golf squad expects to finish second in the league. The members are: FRONT: Mike Gee, Rick Davis, Gordon Aden, Gary Christopher, Dave Gibson, Ron McEcher. BACK: Bruce Jensen, Bob Wilkening, Tom Force, Pat Hall, Griff King, Bruce Lee, Red Barnett, Bob Westberg, Doug Womach, Jim Farrow, Coach George Manning.
These suntans are the result of long hours on the tennis court. The girls on the spring tennis team are:
